World Premiere
Noises Off, Michael Frayn's Tony award winning, comic masterpiece is not one play, but two. The hilariously horrible British sex farce, Nothing On, and the comedic nightmare that ensues backstage.
Slamming doors, flying props, pratfalls, sardines and two-story revolving cabinets as the house is turned upside down to please the small animal. This story features lovable characters, one very ymorning house, and a hilarious lesson about cause-and-effect.

Three Sisters
Written by Anton Chekhov
Nov. 17 – 20 @ 7:30 p.m.
Three sisters follows three young women who are bored to death in a country town in Russia. Surrounded by a fascinating cast of characters, the sisters soon develop with a hostle from a sister-in-law, infidelity, a devastating fire, drunkenness, and the drudgery of work and death. Will they ever reach their dreams of going to Moscow? Probably not, but you'll have fun watching them try.
Touching, funny and close to home, Chekhov's play continues to inspire modern audiences. This show is rated PG-13 for adult content and language.

Theatre Angels

As one of the fastest growing departments in the University System of Georgi, the challenges of expansion and moving forward increase our need for support from individuals in this community.
Theatre angels are an incredible group of theatre advocates who provide support for the student scholarships and additional activities within the department.
The Columbus State University Department of Theatre invites you to join this important group and play a role in our exciting future.
